

Dear FCC:

Re Docket No. 04-233

I have already called KOVR Channel 13 to share my disappointment that the corporate owner is forcing this station, which I first started watching in late 1963, to broadcast the propaganda film, Stolen Honor.

The public airwaves should not be used for Goebbels-like attacks. If KOVR's owners run the propaganda film, I respectfully request the FCC to revoke the owner's license to use the public airwaves.

Please put me on your notice list for that proceeding, or, if additional formal submittals are required to commence such a proceeding, please send them to me. Thank you.
